HARDING TAKES UP INVITATION

Partial Acceptance is Looked For In Official Circles

HUGHES FAVORS PLAN

United States Has Been Hampered by Move—Participation in Peace Parley

Washington, May 6.—President Harding has under consideration today the invitation from the Supreme Council that America participate in future peace councils of the Allies.

The invitation was handed to Secretary of State Hughes this morning by Sir Auckland Geddes, British Ambassador. The Secretary carried it in person to the President and they remained in conference for half an hour.

The communication not only proposes that America send a representative to sit once more upon the Reparations Commission, but that an American diplomat be assigned to sit as a member of the Supreme Council. President Wilson withdrew America's official representation in the peace councils when the Senate rejected the Treaty of Versailles, although unofficial observers since have made reports to the American Government

Whether President Harding will be inclined to accept the invitation now pressed upon him was a matter of speculation here last night. Many of his friends felt that he could do no less than accept in view of the protestations of friendship of interestedness and of vital concern in the settlements now being made in Europe. To reject the invitation, it is pointed out, would be to impeach this Government's sincerity.

On the other hand it is insisted by the rigid constructionists and the anti alliance group generally that there is no justification for America's having any part or voice in the reparations settlement and this country has taken an active position with regard to European problems; that it has repudiated anything approaching an alliance, and that it should not assume any responsibility for the action the Allies take in dealing with Germany. They even contend that with the passage by the House of the Knox resolution, American troops should be withdrawn from the Rhine.

It is doubted in the circles closest to the White House, however, if the President will take so uncompromising a view of the matter. It is believed that Secretary Hughes favors American representation in the Supreme Council and on the Reparations Commission and that his influence with the President eventually will prevail, as it has in many other matters of foreign policy.

It is not indicated by those who know Mr. Hughes' views on this question that he believes this Government should delegate a plenipotentiary to represent it at London or a commissioner to represent it on the reparations committee, having the power to present American views and to commit this Government to a line of action. But Mr. Hughes is said to favor the appointment of American observers, who will give this Government the benefit of the most intimate information available to other interested governments.

In all the discussions involving reparations the State Department has been handicapped by its lack of information as to what Germany actually can pay and, therefore, as to what would constitute a just settlement. This Government has talked in impressive terms of such a settlement, but is ready to admit that it does no know what would be justice and what injustice. To remedy this Mr. Hughes, it is believed, feels that America should have a source of the fullest and most definite information, such a source as is now closed to it on account of the isolation President Wilson ordained when the Senate rejected the Versailles treaty.

Washington will take a keen interest in President Harding's answer on another ground. The reason he gives for what he may do will be a further indication of his foriegn policy. If he joins the Allies in consideration of reparations he will have taken a decisive step toward close communion. How he will reconcile this with the general attitude of his party, particularly with the rejection of the treaty, will be of absorbing interest here and abroad.

Or if Mr. Harding refuses to join even to the extent of sending observers, the reason he will give for that action naturally will be compared with the reason President Wilson gave for similar action. At both the White House and the State Department it was indicated that the President's reply probably would not be forthcoming for at least 24 hours.

EDISON CLAIMS COLLEGE MINDS ARE ATROPHIED

West Orange, N. J., May 6.—Personally applying scientific mental tests to his employes and applicants for jobs, Thomas A. Edison, the electrical wizard, has been amazed by the ignorance of college graduates, "who don't seem to know anything."

"The results of the tests are surprisingly disappointing," Mr. Edison said today, "Take this paper. The man went through college, but I had to rate him XYZ, the lowest possible mark. The connection between his sense and his mind is atrophied.

"You take a man of 22 or so and if he is intelligent he can do anything. When I engage a worker I keep a watch on him. They usually start low, but if ability is shown the rise is rapid.

Edison's system consists of submitting a questionnaire to each worker. So far he has examined about 900 of the replies.

OK Sunday Ball

School Trustees of Jefferson District Permit Use of Grounds on Sabbath

(Special to Gazette)

The board of school trustees of Jefferson District composed of Clyde C. Lamond, R. A. Wilkinson and J. L. Prosise at a special meeting last night decided to allow the Del Ray Atletic Club to use the school playgrounds on Sunday for the playing of baseball. This ground was recently deeded to the Board by the Supervisors as a play ground for children attending Mt. Vernon school.

The school board, in this decision, did not take into consideration the petition of 169 patrons, residents and property holders of the town of Potomac in which they objected to said use, nor of the petition of the ball players, voters and residents of Jefferson district, which petition contained 310 names, but decided that it was the duty of the Town Council to stop such use if it became objectionable.

The meeting was called to order at 8 p. m. by chairman Wilkinson. Mayor Varney led off with a stirring appeal to Board to recognize the right of the mothers of the community in their objection to use of school property for Sunday baseball. His statement that he represented the mothers of the community was backed up with a petition signed by over 100 mothers also 50 heads of families, and 19 other objectors of the town of Potomac. Mr. Burgandine of Mt. Ida followed with an appeal for the use of the grounds for the ball players, he being manager of the team.

From the fact that the majority of the young men playing were employed during the week, and Sunday was the only time that they could enjoy this recreation. He was followed by Rev. O. C Beall, retired minister, who supplimented the appeal previously made by Mayor Varney. He, in turn was followed by one of the ball players, Mr. Bard Corl of Mt. Ida, who submitted 10 petitions containing in all 310 names of residents of the entire school district, which comprises Cottage Park, Braddock, Hume Spring and Mt. Ida. Mr. R. M. Cobeen then addressed the meeting in favor of allowing this use of the ground on Sunday, stating that his own boys played on the team. The board then decided to go into executive session, permitting those speaking for and against to be present.

After discusson a resolution was passed that on first complaint, backed up by evidence of the use of profanity or of fighting on the grounds the board would revoke the aforesaid privlege.

THIRTEEN ARE INJURED IN W. B. & A. COLLISION

Baltimore, Md., May 6.—Thirteen persons were injured, two of them seriously, when a passenger train of the Washington Baltimore and Annapolis Railway collided yesterday afternoon with a work train at Wellham, Anne Arundel county.

Major John Du Puyster Douw, former mayor of Annapolis, received the worst injuries of the passengers, suffering scalps lacerations and cuts on the face. Mrs. Benjamin Beard, of Annapolis, and Mrs. Virginia Immel, of Earleigh Heights were the only other passengers injured.

RAIN! RAIN! STILL MORE DUE TO ARRIVE TODAY

With the waters of the Potomac River swollen as the result of the continual rains during the past six days, and with reports from Maryland cities skirting the river to the effect that thousands of persons are in danger of being driven from their homes by the risingg waters, the weather forecast for today is "Overcast, with occasional rains."

The rains of this month have exceded the average rainfall for this period by nearly one and a half inches, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau.

EX-GOVERNOR CATTS UNDER INDICTMENT

Starke, Fla., May 6.—The Rev. Sidney J. Catts, former Governor of Florida, was indicted late yesterday by the Bradford county grand jury for "corrupttly receiving and accepting a gratuity of money for casting his vote for the granting of pardons while Governor of the State of Florida," according to an announcement today. Catts is specifically charged with having accepted $700 for his vote in favor of granting a conditional pardon to a man convicted of murder in Bay county in 1918 and sentenced to life imprisonment.

The investigation by the Bradford county grand jury resulted from the fact that the State prison farm, at which the prisoner was serving his sentence, is located in Bradford county. Upon orders of State's Attorney Crews, the name of the former prisoner involved is withheld.

Governor Catts was an ex-officio member of the Pardon Board, which is composed of four members of the Governor's cabinet. Under the State laws the Governor does not possess full powers, but may exercise a veto in the granting of pardons.

For the last two weeks the joint legislative committee has been investigating rumors that the former Executive was influenced by money in certain of his official acts, and that during his term of office he was guilty of other unlawful conduct.

Mr. Catts' term of office expired January 3 last.

A capias for the arrest of former Governor Catts has been issued by Circuit Court Judge Long. Mr. Catts is understood to be in Alabama.

KU KLUX BLOTS OUT WIRE-TAPPING BAND

Daytona, Fla., May 6.—The blotting out of a wire-tapping band here by the Ku Klux Klan has caused widespread comment. Complaints of victims did not seem to get anywhere until Mrs. A. G. Krebs, a widow of Tamaqua, Pa., was swindled out of $12000.

Twenty seven automobiles, each loaded with armed men wearing white masks, rolled out of Daytona at midnight immediately after the news of the fleecing of the widow had become known, and set out across the long bridge which leads to fashionable Daytona Beach. They drove to a park near the Oliver Mansion, which had been leased to the swindlers, though the owners did not know the character of the tenants.

One hundred and fifty there were when the last automobile had been emptied, each holding a rifle, each wearing the white musk of the Klan. At a signal the Klansmen quickly and silently surrounded the house. Another signal. Then a savage chatter of gunfire. Every window in the house was shattered by the fusilade. Doors were splintered by heavy bullets.

Another signal. Silence. Swiftly the leaders approached the house and battered down the doors, while their followers stood in the darkness with rifles ready.

In the spacious drawing room rocking chairs and tickers and other paraphernalia of wire-tapping were found. None of the gang was in the house,

Hiding under a bed on the second floor, however, was a terrified underling, believed to be the chauffeur for one of the swindlers. The man went to a window and jumped. Fifty rifles were raised and fired.

Whether the man was riddled with bullets as he reached the ground is one of those secrets which the Ku Klux Klan never reveals. He may have been buried, he may have escaped.

Gifts For Mother

Suggestions of Merchants Great Aid to Those Who Will Honor Mother Sunday

Sunday will be Mother's Day, this day sons and daughters honor mothers living, and dead, is becoming more and more generally observed. In addition to the custom of sending flowers to mothers living and wearing flowers white for mothers who have passed to the great beyond, has become a day on which to do something morde effective for living mothers. The idea of the day is to write her a letter, give her flowers or wear them for her, buy and send to her some little gift which will be a tribute of affection. A number of the local merchants have co-operated heartily in the idea of making Mother's Day in this city as successful as it is in other cities. On page eight of today's Gazette, is a page devoted to Mother. One merchant from different lines of business has a suggestion for Mother for her day which is this coming Sunday. On page 2 another merchant whose suggestion is just as appropriate for the occasion as those on page eight has something to say to our readers. Read these ads, they convey a beautiful sentiment.

Who Won The War?

There is probably a very wide divergence of opinion in different countries and among different groups as to who among all the statesmen and military leaders of the Allies played the most conspicuous part in the winning of the World War. The University of Warsaw has selected Wilson, Foch and Hoover as the three men who performed the greatest service for humanity and civilization in the war and conferred upon them the first honorary degrees ever given by that university.

However meritorious may be the claims advanced for others such as Clemenceau or Lloyd-George, critics will find it difficult to displace the judgment of the Poles on this subject. Mr. Wilson is universally credited with having first voiced in an idealistic way the war aims of the Allied governments with having insisted upon one supreme Allied military command, with having destroyed German superiority in men and munitions by the unprecedented American mobilization, with having broken the morale of the German armies and the German people, and with having paved the way for the abdication of the Kaiser and the German revolution. General Foch is undoubtedly the one outstanding military genius of the war on the Allied side. Herbert Hoover, more than any one man, kept the home fires burning throughout Allied Europe while the men were in the trenches. The more the war records of these three men are studied in the light of history and away from the smoky atmosphere of present prejudices and partisanship, the more difficult it will be found to indict the choice of the Polish University.

Carried away no doubt by the enthusiasm of the moment, Senator Lodge, the Republican Leader of the Senate, the other day announced, in the midst of debate over the Knox Resolution, that a "separate peace treaty" was to be negotiated with Germany. The world gaped. No less than 12 days previously President Harding had said that we were to "engage under the existing treaty." Was there then a conflict in the ranks, an open breach between the President and his Senate spokesman on foreign affairs? There apparently was. But appearances are sometimes deceitful, or rather words are. Mr. Lodge has been quick to say that he was "misunderstood;" that he merely meant that a treaty of "amity, commerce and extradition" after the customary manner would follow the adoption of the Knox Resolution. There should be a new dictionary made verily to include "normalcy" and the double-meaning words of Henry Cabot Lodge. Poor benighted souls who are addicted to Webster and the ordinary King's English cannot otherwise keep up with the foreign policies of this Administration.

WADDILL AND M'CLINTIC LEAD IN JUDESHIP RACE

Washington, D. C., May 5.—The contest for appointment to the vacancy on the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals was reliably reported tonight to have narrowed down to recognition of one of two states—Virginia or West Virginia.

Judge Edmund Waddill of Richmond and George W. McClintic, of Charleston, W. Va., were said by well-informed persons to be ahead of approximately a dozen other candidates from these two states and Maryland and North Carolina.

The West Virginia republican organization today concentrated upon McClintic, leader of the majority party in the state legislature, and threw overboard other candidates from that state.

NUXATED IRON
Helps make rich, red blood and revitalize weak nerves

IS THIN WATERY BLOOD RUINING YOUR HEALTH?

AND SAPPING YOUR BODILY AND MENTAL VIGOR, LEAVING YOU WEAK, NERVOUS AND IRRITABLE AND MAKING A FAILURE OUT OF YOU? HOW TO TELL

If you suspect you may be suffering from iron starvation, do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration or until in your weakened condition you contract some serious disease, but consult your family physician and have him take a specimen of your blood and make a "blood count" of your red blood corpuscles or test the iron-power of your blood yourself by adding plenty of spinach, carrots, or other iron-containing vegetables to your daily food and take organic iron like Nuxated Iron with them for a while and see how much your condition improves.

Thousands of people have surprisingly increased their strength, energy and endurance in two weeks' time by this simple experiment. But in making this test, be sure the iron you take is organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and not metallic or mineral iron which people usually take. Organic Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly concentrated form that one dose is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating half a quart of spinach, or one quart of green vegetables. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "Nuxated" on every package and for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists.

ROSEMONT. DEL RAY
BRADDOCK MT. IDA.
ST. ELMO

Miss Lou Washington, of Washington, D. C., is visiting in the home of her brother, Mrs. R. B. Washington, in Braddock.

Miss Florence Taylor, from Richmond, Va., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Dienelt, in Rosemont.

Mrs. F. J. Davidson and little son, also Mrs. C. J. Dienelt and children from Washington, D. C., spent the day recently with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Henderson, in Rosemont.

Mrs. Richard B. Washington and little son, Dick, of Braddock, left today for a visit to Mrs. William C. Stribling, in Fauquier County, Va.

Some time last month the Ann McCarty Ramsey Chapter of the Children of the American Revolution was organized in Braddock Heights with forty-two charter members, and there are now twenty papers for membership pending, so that this chapter makes a fine start. The members are children of Rosemont, Braddock and Alexandria, and about twenty-two of the members were taken by their organizer, Mrs. C. A. S. Sinclair, to the reception which Mrs. Harding gave to the National Organization of the order at the White House on April 16th. Needless to say, the party had a lovely time, following the reception they were photographed with Mrs. Harding in the White House garden, and the picture proved to be excellent, also some time was spent playing about in the gardens, and on April the 23rd, the local chapter accompanied the National Organization on their annual pilgrimage to Mt. Vernon on the steamer MacAllister. Two members of the chapter placed wreaths on the tomb of General and Mrs. Washington. The first regular meeting of the newly organized Ann McCarty Ramsay Chapter, will be held on Monday, the 10th instant, at half past three, in the home of Mrs. C. A. S. Sinclair, in Braddock Heights, and it is desired that every member be present and prompt as Mrs. Eleanor S. W. Howard, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Marchlin Niven, from Alexandria, will be in attendance to assist in the election of officers.

Rev. Wilis L. Wayts, pastor, will preach both services at Del Ray Baptist Church on Sunday, in the morning he will discuss, "Christ's Concern About His Mother;" and at the evening service will present, "The Rich Young Man."

Grade 3-B gave a party yesterday afternoon at Mt. Vernon Avenue School, Del Ray, in honor of Miss Clark, their teacher. Rainy weather outside, had no effect on the "party" and everyone had a fine time.

William Barbour has returned to his home in Bellefonte Avenue, Del Ray, after an extended visit to his uncle, Mr. Thomas Moriarity, on Caton Farm, near Leesburg, Va.

Mrs. George Piggott and small daughter, are visiting Mrs. Thomas Coleman, on Bellefonte Avenue, Del Ray.

Mrs. George Lebold, of Chicago, who is a guest of Mrs. Walter C. Davis, and has been visiting other friends nearby, has returned to complete her visit in Mrs. Davis' home in Del Ray.

Miss Cenie Adam, of Del Ray, who recently had her tonsils removed in the Alexandria Hospital, has recovered sufficiently to return to her work.

Prof. Blackwell, president of Randolph Macon College for men, at Ashland, Va., will address the congregation of Del Ray M. E. Church at the 8 o'clock service Sunday night Prof. Blackwell come in the interest of the Christian Education movement. The pastor, Rev. J. Raymond Wood will preach the morning sermon at 11 a. m. Everybody invited to both services.

Mr. Allan Hume has two houses under construction on Hume Avenue, St. Elmo, very near the electric car line, and one of which is nearing completion.

The regular monthly meeting of Del Ray Baptist Missionary Society was held in that church last night at 8 o'clock.

A weasel killed nine thoroughbred Rhode Island Red chicks, property of Mr. John Gary, in Del Ray, one night recently. War on the weasel!

Last night Mrs. John L. Charles, of Washington, was the guest of Miss Gretta Ludwig, in her home in Braddock.

Mr. ad Mrs. William Petry, of Braddock, have another fine boy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lester Martin have moved into their new home on Russell Road, Braddock.

On Tuesday night about twenty young people of the Arlington county Young Peoples' Sunday School Association, gave a surprise party to their adult leader, Mrs. D. C. Chambers, in her home in Mt. Ida. Rev. J. Raymond Wood, pastor of Del Ray M. E. Church, was also present. There were some very interesting games, music, both vocal and instrumental, and very delicious refreshments which the members brought with them. In every respect it was a very delightful affair; these young people are full of enthusaism, and more will be heard of them later.

PENNILESS WORLD WAR VETERAN DISPOSSESSED

Petersburg, May 5.—Without a penny in the world, T. J. Rigsby, aged about twenty-five years, a veteran of the world war, his wife and seven-months-old child, without food for three days, appeared in the civil court here today, and heard the court tell him to vacate the only place he calls his home, because he is unable to pay the house rent.

The man's plea touched the kind-hearted magistrate, but he could follow no other course than to order the man to vacate, the owner having pressed the proceedings. The court, however, gave Rigsby until Saturday, the maximum time, to leave the house. The magistrate and several others gave several dollars to the man, in order that he could buy food. The matter has now been taken up by several organizations and individuals and Rigsby, his wife and child, will be cared for.

Returning from the army, Rigsby and his wife were happy with their child in the small house at 1001 Rome street, until he lost his job on January 15. Three months house rent accumulated and the owner sought relief from the law to have the former doughboy vacate the house, it being part of his support. The law took its course and those who heard Rigsby's story in court were surprised to know that any family in Petersburg was in such destitute circumstances.

SISTER SAYS FOUL PLAY CAUSED OFFICER'S DEATH

Norfolk, Va., May 6.—"A crime was committed in connection with my brother's death."

This was the flat statement made today by Miss Sarah Rupp of York, Pa., sister of Lieut. D. A. Rupp, Langley Field quartermaster, whose mysterious death is being investigated by the United States grand jury at Norfolk.

Miss Rupp bitterly denounced statements intimating that her brother had taken his own life.

"We are determined to clear my brother's name and at the same time if any one is responsible for his death we want a jury to decide upon their guilt. My brother had too much to live for to take his own life."

Mrs. Rupp, wife of the deceased lieutenant, who is living at the home of her mother near Philadelphia, has not been summoned to appear before the grand jury. Lieut. Rupp was found dead in his quarters at Langley Field early in February by his wife, who had returned to the post only a few days before.

The couple had been the center of a sensational "assault case" in which it was alleged that Mrs. Rupp was attacked in her bedroom. Lieut. Rupp was the son of Harry D. Rupp of York, Pa., an influential politician and a close friend of Senator Penrose. H. Minor Rupp of Philadelphia, brother of Lieut. Rupp, at whose instigation the probe was started, also declares his brother met with foul play.

WOULD WALK THE FLOOR FOR HOURS

Lynchburg Woman so Nervous Could Not Sleep—Tanlac Restores Health Completely

"There are some wonderful things in this world, and what Tanlac has done for me is one of them," said Mrs. G. T. Holt, of 1912 Bluff St., Lynchburg, Va., wife of a well known railroad man.

"I was certainly in bad condition before I began taking Tanlac. I suffered so from indigestion that I had to live on a very light diet, and at times I became so nauseated I could scarcely retain a thing on my stomach. I was so nervous and restless that sleep was almost out of the question, and many nights I had to walk the floor so much I didn't undress, but lay down across the bed. I had terrible spells of headaches and dizziness, and I became so weak that I had to give up my house work altogether.

"There wouldn't be near so much suffering in this world if everybody knew about Tanlac, for I believe it would help others like it has me. Why, the medicine has given me a splendid appetite, and I eat anything it calls for without feeling a sign of indigestion. My housework is easy for me now, and I just feel fine all the time. I want to help everybody I can who is suffering like I did, and I believe the best way I can do so is by telling them of Tanlac."

BABY GIRL LEFT AT DOOR OF REV. PERCY S. GRANT

New Yorw, May 6.—It would have warmed the heart of the most conservative bishop in the world to see the Rev. Dr. Percy Stickney Grant, bachelor rector of the Church of the Ascension, and so pronounced a liberal as to have suffered episcopal rebuke, walking the floor in the conventional dressing gown and slippers before dawn today with an infant whose right to free expression of her views he was doing his best to suppress.

The baby, a girl not more than ten days old, had been left at the rector's door a little before last midnight.

A maid in Dr. Grant's employ found the baby on his doorstep, Dr. Grant was awakened and came down. He ordered milk warmed, a sleeping place for the baby prepared and summoned his physician. The latter pronounced the child to be in the best of health and gave directions as to her feeding, which Dr. Grant supervised in person.

One of his first activities this morning was to call up the department of public welfare and obtain permission to keep the baby temporarily.

"I shall keep the child," said Dr. Grant tonight, "until I can determine what is best for her welfare."

PLOW TURNS UP $19,300 IN GOLD HIDDEN IN FIELD

Lansing, Iowa, May 6.—Fortune turned her smiling face on John Brazell of Lansing, when the plow which he was operating unearthed $19,300 in gold. The sum was found on the old Patrick Callahan farm where Brabell was working as farm hand.

The money was in a glass jar and is believed to have been buried on the farm for many years.

National Foreign Trade Council Speakers Urge Co-Operation Of All Business

Cleveland, May 6.—The predominating note sounded at the opening session today of the eighth annual convention of the National Foreign Trade Council was the adoption of an active policy of co-operation between bankers, manufacturers and merchants to maintain world supremacy for the United States in foreign trade.

Organization of financial resources to supply long-time credits to foreign countries, doing away with burdening taxation of American investments abroad and the adoption of an elastic tariff policy were cited as important steps in accomplishing this object.

The Foreign Trade Financing Corporation, formed under the provisions of the Edge law, to provide extension of foreign credits, was approved by speakers as a help to America's foreign trade.

WOULD PROBE NAVAL EXAMS.

Washington, May 6.—Senator Pomerene, democrat, Ohio, introduced today a resolution asking the Senate naval committee to look into the recent examinations held at the Naval Academy and the reasons for the failures of many midshipmen in the March re-examination. He announced he would speak on the resolution tomorrow.

Two Year's Suffering Ended By Chasco-Vin In Two Weeks Time

"Between nervous spells and stomach troubles covering a period of two years. It was in a very bad state of health. During all that time I doctored right along but didn't seem to get much better. Some friends insisted that I try Chasco-Vin and my only regret is that I did not try it much sooner because with only half the first bottle gone I felt so much better. But I kept right on until it brought me around in good shape. It took five bottles to do it but now I feel fine. It will always praise Chasco-Vin for I think it is a wonderful tonic." Mrs. Brown, 141 Mt. Vernon Street, Camden, N. J.

Chasco-Vin is only sold by specially appointed agents in Alexandria. The Chasco-Vin agency is Edgar Warfield Jr., King and Pitt Streets.

Are your horse hauling costs too high?
Are the motor truck people gaining ground?

If so, will you be honest with yourself while you answer this question:—"Have I ever spent the remotest part of the money or brains in improving my feeding methods, that are spent every year on carburetors and transmissions?"

Purina O-Molene is 20th century brains applied to horse feeding. We positively assure you ⅓ less of it may be used than of oats or corn.

Invitations announcing the marriage of Miss Ethel May Essen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Essen, and Mr. George Clinton Tasker, lieutenant supply corps, United States Navy, which took place Wednesday, May 4, at Green Bay, Wisconsin, have been received in this city.

CARPENTERS ACCEPT CUT.

Pottstown, Pa., May 6.—At a conference between journeymen carpenters and contractors last night an agreement was reachd on a new wage scale. The journeymen agreed to draw a new scale at the rate of 75 cents an hour instead of $1, which has been charged for the past two years. The contractors will charge 90 cents an hour for work.

TWISTS OFF WIFE'S EARS; THEN GIVES HIMSELF UP

Muskogon, Mich., May 6.—Twisting off his wife's ears with bare hands was the punishment adopted by Frank Miller of Muskegon Height, here today, he is now lodged in the Muskegon county jail with a charge of mayhem pending against him.

After twisting both ears from the head of his wife, Miller walked over to the police station and calmly told Chief of Police Holland what he had done and asked that he be arrested.

Neighbors attracted by the woman's screams in the meantime rushed to the home and summoned a physician. She was rushed to a hospital in a serious condition from shock and loss of blood. When neighbors arrived they found Mrs. Miller's four small children close by crying. The woman was covered with blood.

SPORTS

"CHAMPIONS CLASH"

Sunday, 1:45 p. m., Baggett's field on upper King street, will be the stage for a contest in baseball between the Dreadnaughts and the Keystone Athletic Club of Atlantic City, New Jersey. Both teams are champions of their respective commonwealths. Coaches from both camps are satisfied with their teams' condition, and are confident of winning, so if everything goes well, a baseball battle unexcelled in amateur circles, will be played in Alexandria Sunday, and will undoubtedly be the most interesting event of its kind ever played on any diamond in the state.

The Dreadnaught manager has many applications for games with teams, but is slow in closing agreements when their ability to play in fast company is doubted. Champion pugilists are daily deluged with challenges from weak minded aspirants to ring-fame, and so it is in baseball. Politeness in rebuking these challenges is the policy of the Dreadnaughts, but any baseball club with an earned or inherited reputation in the sport who challenges the Dreadnaughts in the spirit of honest sportmanship will receive its deserved consideration.

Turn out with the crowds and see the two big week-end games Saturday, 3:30 p. m. Dreadnaughts vs. Fort Myer.

Sunday, 1:45 p. m., Keystone, A. C., of Atlantic City, N. J. Both to be played on Baggett's field.

The Triangle Sport Club recently organized, is making a drive for new members. This club is one of the best Junior Clubs in the city, now having thirty-two healthy boys on its roll. This club, formerly known as the Dreadnaught Juniors, have an enviable record in all sports. The basketball team winning fourteen games and losing one. The football team winning seven of nine games. They are now getting in form for a crack baseball team. Each one trying to win his letter, which will be given at the end of the season. The regulars, whom we are proud of, line-up as follows: Daddy Davis, who will not miss a ball wherever you throw it, is on first, Legs Leef on second, who, tags them no matter how hard they come, and Mr. Edwards on third, will soon be drawing a salary on a big league team. Standing out like a blazing star, stands Irish Kelly, our shortstop, who takes the cake. We can not say enough about our outfield, which consists of Puncher Duty, right field, Nuts Langford, center field and Shorty Chauncey, left field. Last, but not least, comes our batteries, who are the most carefully trained boys of the team. Happy Whitton and Shad Lawler doing the receiving, while Chubby Blunt and Lanky Smith putting them over. Our subs are all good, but everybody cannot play at once, so they adorn the bench till there time comes. Among them are Jew Howard, Fordy, Red's Wolford, Baby Bendheim, Greek Pettit, Blaky and Bones Fletcher. The manager of the team, Jake Howard, is a hustling young man, is getting many games The coach, Mr. L. E. Roadhouse who is also president of the club, is making men out of these boys, and notes are that he will have great success We would like to see big crowds at our games, as these boys will be the future ball players of Alexandria. Games are played every Sunday so come and root for us.

TRIPLE A PLAY TWO

The Alexandria Athletic Association will play the Judd & Detweiler printers on the shipyard grounds Saturday, at 3 p. m.

Sunday the strong Fort Myer Post Team will come here for a game with the Triple A. This team has won ten straight games so far this season and will make a real battle for the Association team. Both teams are boasting a string of straight victories and neither have been defeated this season. Jimmy Quayle will be ready as usual to pitch a good game, as he never felt better than he has this spring, and with good team play behind him, it is a matter of waiting a long time before any of the fast amateur teams will be able to defeat him with the strong fighting club behind him as the Triple A have shown all season.

These games will be transferred to other grounds if weather prevents play on the shipyard grounds. Watch the theatres for the notice of change to another field. You are welcome to attend both of these week end games, as they are going to be the real stuff.

"King Rain" and "Queen Cold-and Wind" held a consultation in their aerial home last Sunday and they decided that Old Mother Earth needed a bath—and then they turned on the showers full speed, thus putting a stop to the baseball game to be played on the Alexandria High School field by the Cardinal Athletic Club and Brookland Athletic Club baseball teams. The same teams will meet later in the season.

Sunday, May 8, at 3 o'clock p. m., weather permitting, the Cardinals and Rockfords of Northeast Washington, will try to please their many friends in Alexandria by giving them an interesting exhibiton in baseball playing. Both teams will use good men in their different positions in an effort to capture the game.

The Cardinals will commence their fifteenth annual baseball season in Alexandria when they play the opening game, and, up-to-date, the Cardinals are the oldest known independent sandlot baseball team in the United States of America, or in the world, as far as the claim is concerned. When a baseball club can exist for so many years there certainly must be something in their favor to warrant such success. The officers of the Cardinals have always tried to treat everybody fair in every way and have endeavored to entertain the fans of Alexandria with clean baseball games. Baseball teams may win from the Cardinals, but when they do so it must be done in an honorable manner.

The Maroon and Gray lads never "lay down," to any team and go on the baseball field to win—if it is possible to do so.

fwonCzz will dd mod om dom w

The Cardinals respectfully invite those who like to witness a good baseball game to attend their opening contest. No charge will be made, but all who desire to aid in defraying the necessary expenses for carfare for the visiting team, purchase of baseballs and miscellaneous items, are at liberty to give an offering when the collector passes among them.

Dead Men Tell No Tales

One man against six is the status in Vitagraph's Tom Terriss production, "Dead Men Tell No Tales." The six plotters blew up a sailing vessel in mid-ocean to steal a cargo of gold from Australia. They made their plans carefully so that none of the several hundred passengers and crew could escape alive; but one man foiled the plotters. He tracked them to Rattray Hall and single handed bested the lot. An all-star cast was engaged to make the picture.

IDLE HOUR THEATRE

Catherine Calvert and Percy Marmont have the leading roles in Vitagraph's Tom Terriss production, "Dead Men Tell No Tales," at the Idle Hour Theatre Saturday, May 7. These players were selected because of their particular fitness for the parts assigned. They are duplicates of the characters described by E. W. Hornung in his famous novel.

RICHMOND THEATRE

"Man-Woman-Marriage," the famous Allen Holubar First National production, now playing at the Richmond Theatre, today and tomorrow, has not only created a sensation among movie goers, but has startled the producing end of the picture industry. Those who long ago prophesied that Allen Holubar would some day set the pace in the ranks of director—authors are convinced that that producer has far eclipsed even their expectations.
